JURISDICTION OF THE COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS

RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

RULE X

ESTABLISHMENT AND JURISDICTION OF STANDING COMMITTEES

THE COMMITTEES AND THEIR JURISDICTION

1. There shall be in the House the following standing committees, each of which shall have the jurisdiction and related functions assigned to it by this clause and clauses 2, 3, and 4; and all bills, resolutions, and other matters relating to subjects within the jurisdiction of any standing committee as listed in this clause shall (in accordance with and subject to clause 5) be referred to such committees, as follows:

* * * * * * *

(v) Committee on Ways and Means.

(1) Customs, collection districts, and ports of entry and delivery.

(2) Reciprocal trade agreements.

(3) Revenue measures generally.

(4) Revenue measures relating to the insular possessions.

(5) The bonded debt of the United States (subject to the last sentence of clause 4(g) of this rule).

(6) The deposit of public moneys.

(7) Transportation of dutiable goods.

(8) Tax exempt foundations and charitable trusts.

(9) National Social Security, except (A) health care and facilities programs that are supported from general revenues as opposed to payroll deductions and (B) work incentive programs.

NOTE. As a select committee the Committee on Ways and Means dates from 1789. It was made a standing committee in 1802. Originally it considered both revenue and appropriations, but in 1865 the appropriation bills were given to the Committee on Appropriations, and certain other bills to what is now the Committee on Banking, Finance, and Urban Affairs. The subject of recesses and final adjournments, formerly within the jurisdiction of this committee was, under the Reorganization Act of 1946, transferred to the Committee on Rules.

SUMMARIES OF PUBLIC AND PRIVATE BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS ON WHICH ACTION WAS TAKEN BY COMMITTEE—IN NUMERICAL ORDER

H.R. 4 (Mr. Rostenkowski with cosponsors); Public Law 102-2; app. Jan. 30, 1991.

H.R. 4, a bill to extend the time for performing certain acts under the internal revenue laws for individuals performing services as part of the Desert Shield Operation, was reported (amended) by the Committee on Ways and Means on Jan. 23, 1991. The House passed H.R. 4 (amended) on Jan. 23, 1989. On Jan. 24, 1989, the Senate passed the bill without amendment. The President signed H.R. 4 into law on Jan. 30, 1991, as Public Law 102-2.

The act amends the Internal Revenue Code to declare that any individual who performed Desert Shield services (and the individual's spouse) shall be entitled to the benefit of extending the time for performing tax-related acts by reason of service in a combat zone; allows the payment of interest on any overpayments due such individuals, starting Apr. 15 (generally, interest will be paid only on refunds made more than 45 days after a return is filed); and applies the time extension granted by this act to individuals hospitalized inside as well as outside the United States with limits on hospitalization and denial of this same extension to the individual's spouse.

H.R. 991 (Mr. Carper with cosponsors); passed Senate Mar. 7, 1991.

H.R. 991, the Defense Production Act Extension and Amendments of 1991, was referred to the Committee on Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs on Feb. 20, 1991. The Committee on Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs reported the bill (amended) to the House on Mar. 4, 1991. The House passed the bill (amended) on Mar. 6, 1991. On Mar 7, 1991, the Senate struck all after the enacting clause and substituted the language of S. 468 (amended); H.R. 991 (amended) passed in lieu of S. 468. The Speaker appointed members of the Committee on Ways and Means as conferees on secs. 202-204 of the Senate amendment.

Secs. 202-204, the Fair Trade in Financial Services Act, require the Secretary of the Treasury twice a year to identify foreign countries denying national treatment to U.S. banks and securities firms and to enter into negotiations with those countries for the purpose of obtaining national treatment. The Secretary at any time may publish in the Federal Register his determination that a country denies national treatment. On that basis, any Federal banking agency or the Securities and Exchange Commission, in consultation with the Secretary, may deny an application or license of a foreign firm from the country concerned.
